

GERMAN INTERNATIONAL SCHOOL NEW YORK NEWCOMERS' CLUB

NYC Public Library Tour on Tuesday, January 7th, 2020

Our first tour in the new year takes us to the NYC Public Library.

The so-called Stephen A. Schwarzmann building is one of the three public libraries in New York City and with over 53 million media the second largest library in the USA and the third largest in the world. It is a private, non-governmental, independently run, nonprofit corporation that works with both private and public funds.

The main building on Fifth Avenue is world-famous for its many film adaptations, and everyone knows the two lions that flank the entrance. In the Astor Hall, the breathtaking splendour of the white marble entrance area, we begin our 1 hour private tour of this beautiful building, including the Rose Main Reading Room, the McGraw Rotunda and the current constellations.
